

12 January 2023

Freedom of Information Act request, Investments in and funding from oil and gas companies IMPF01-22-533, Imperial College response

1. Research funding and donations

Please see the tables below for research funding and gifts/donations received from oil and gas companies in the time-period specified:

Research funding, oil and gas companies 17/18 - 21/22	Total
Aramco	£1,290,236.28
BP	£4,663,506.30
Shell	£24,009,092.20
Chevron Energy Technology Company	£86,082.92
China Petrochemical Technology Company Limited	£516,067.27
China Petroleum and Chemical Corporation (SINOPEC)	£2,863,540.71
CNOOC China Limited Beijing Research Center	£148,199.59
Equinor	£2,033,546.13
Exxon Mobil	£1,240,552.47
Statoil	£363,944.09
Total E&P UK Limited	£2,561,559.22
Grand Total	£39,771,605.98

Gifts and donations, oil and gas companies 17/18 - 21/22	Total
BP	£438,955.80
Chevron Humankind Matching Gift Program	£23,480.72
ConocoPhillips (UK) Limited	£93,800.00
Hewett Petroleum Services Limited	£465.90
Shell Global Solutions International B.V.	£636,804.69
Total	£243,582.00
Grand Total	£1,437,089.11

2. Research funding received from JP Morgan or Blackrock related to energy or climate research

None.

3. Details of investment portfolios

Information about the College endowment and holdings can be found on the Endowment pages of the College website.

You can read more about the Endowment's approach to Socially Responsible Investment and Environmental, Social & Governance concerns on our Socially Responsible Investment Policy pages.