IMPERIAL
Institute of Global Health Innovation

Towards Equity in Health

- Date: Wednesday 18 September 2024
- Location: South Kensington Campus, Sir Alexander Fleming Building
- Event goals: To set priorities to improve health equity, share examples of best practice, challenge thinking and foster collaboration across academia, government and charitable sector.

Agenda with proposed timings and speakers – subject to change

1. 9.00 – 9.30		Arrival and tea and coffee
2.Morning sessions
9.30 – 9.35	Plenary Lecture Theatre	Welcome by Kamran Abbasi
9.35 – 9.50		Opening by Professor the Lord Ara Darzi, Co-Director, Institute of Global Health Innovation (IGHI)
9.50 – 10.15		Keynote speaker Michael Marmot, Professor of Epidemiology and Public Health at University College London, followed by questions
10.15 – 11.05		Panel Discussion on Digital and Health Equity • Fixing the Digital Divide – Helen Milner, CEO the Good Things Foundation • Perspective on digital and health equity – Brad Gudger, Founder of Alike and Vice Chair of National Academy for Social Prescribing • Digital's potential for Improving Health Equity and Outcomes – Dr Saira Ghafur, IGHI
11.10 – 11.30		Coffee Break
11.30 – 12.25	Breakout rooms	Health Equity for different populations • Health equity for older people – Dr Adrian Hayter, GP and former National Clinical Director for Older People Moderator: Peter Kelly • Health equity for the Roma community and other minority ethnic groups – Rebecca Cave, Strategy Programme Manager and Trust Innovation Lead, Royal Cornwall Hospitals NHS Trust; and Gareth Walsh Public Health Practitioner, Cornwall Council Moderator: David Lamberti • Health Equity and the population of North West London – Dr Bob Klaber, Consultant General Paediatrician & Director of Strategy, Research & Innovation at Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust; and Jodie Chan, Patient and Public Involvement and Engagement Officer, IGHI Moderator: Jennifer Yip

IMPERIAL
Institute of Global Health Innovation

Supported by

BritishRedCross

Towards Equity in Health

3. 12.25 – 13.15		Lunch
4. Afternoon Sessions
13.15 – 13.25	Plenary Lecture theatre	Brief feedback (one slide) on key points from each of the breakout sessions. Kamran Abbasi
13.25 – 13.35		Opening of the afternoon sessions, Elizabeth J. Padmore, Chair, British Red Cross
13.35 – 13.55		Keynote Speaker Professor Bola Owolabi, Director, National Healthcare Inequalities Improvement Programme, NHS England
14.00 – 14.55	Breakout rooms	Health Equity in Practice • Health equity services in Cardiff for marginalised groups – Dr Ayla Cosh, Clinical Director, Cardiff and Vale Health Inclusion Service Moderator: Peter Kelly • Health Equity as a Marmot Trust – Laura Austin-Croft, Director for Population Health and Consultant in Public Health at the East London NHS Foundation Trust (ELFT); Dawn Hutcheon, People Participation, ELFT; Aurora Todisco, Lived Experience Consultant. Moderator: Jennifer Yip • Health equity for high-intensity users – Victoria Corbishley, Senior Director of Health and Local Crisis Response at British Red Cross Moderator: David Lamberti
14.55 – 15.15		Coffee Break
15.15 – 16.10	Plenary Lecture theatre	Brief feedback on key points from each of the Breakout Sessions – Kamran Abbasi Leadership Reflections on Equity in Health • Professor Geeta Nargund, Vice Chair of British Red Cross, Lead Consultant in Reproductive Medicine at St George's Hospital NHS Trust • Kevin Fong, Professor, Public Engagement and Innovation, Department of Science, Technology, Education and Public Policy (STEaPP), University College London Followed by Q&A
16.10-16.30		Closing Session of Health Equity Summit Recommendations for the government based on Summit Discussion – Lord Darzi, IGHI; Lisa Hollins, British Red Cross; Peter Howitt, IGHI