

RCUK Energy Strategy Fellowship Expert Workshop: Energy in the Home & Workplace

Location: Scarman Training & Conference Centre, The University of Warwick, 5-6 February 2013

Tuesday 5th Feb
10.15	Arrival and Registration
10.30	Session One: Introduction Introduction to the purpose and process of this Expert Workshop and the overall development plan to create an Energy Research and Training Prospectus
	Discussions and activities to share current thinking in this key area of the energy domain in order to generate different perspectives and ideas on the challenges we are facing
12.30	Lunch
13.30	Session Two: Exploring the Research Themes Discussions and activities to identify and develop potential research themes from different perspectives
	Session Three: Reflection and Summary Activities to reflect on the various different emerging research themes and their relationships
17.30	Close
19.00	Drinks Reception and Dinner
Wednesday 6th Feb
9.00	Session One: Introduction to Day Two
	Session Two: Deeper Analysis of the Emergent Research Themes Discussions and activities to explore emergent research themes more deeply, with the aim of identifying drivers and barriers to these different future research themes
12.15	Lunch
13.15	Session Three: Further Development of Research Themes Discussion and activities to further shape the prospectus
	Session Four: Summary and Next Steps Plenary session to summarise and discuss the key outputs of the workshop, as well as the next steps in the development of the prospectus
16.00	Event Finishes

Please note that there will be short refreshments breaks during the morning and afternoon sessions