

RCUK Energy Strategy Fellowship Expert Workshop: Industrial Energy: Research and Training Needs

Location: 58 Prince's Gardens, Imperial College, South Kensington, London, SW7 2PG
17th July 2013

Wednesday 17th July
10.00	Arrival, Registration and Coffee
10:30	Introductions
10.35	Session One: Introduction Introduction to the purpose and process of the Workshop and the overall development plan for creating an Energy Research and Training Prospectus
10:50	Session Two: The Current Industrial Energy Research Landscape Who is currently active (research/funding)? What are they up to? Who's missing from the meeting?
11:10	Session Three: Identification of Key Industrial Energy Research Challenges Use a "conceptual framework" chart to provoke the identification of key research challenges; cluster these into higher level research themes
12.45	Lunch
13.30	Session Four: Analysis of Emerging Research Themes What are the associated research questions? Whose job is it to take these forward? What research infrastructure do we need (research/testing facilities, data collection/curation etc)? What are the training needs?
15:15	Tea break
15:30	Session Five: Drawing it all together and Next Steps What have we missed? What should the Research Councils continue to do, do more/less of?
16.30	Close