Programme Overview

The MSc in Strategic Marketing is offered over 12 months. The MSc Strategic Marketing programme is a one-year full-time programme that transforms recent graduates into responsible business leaders with a deep understanding of marketing from a strategic perspective. Drawing on our world-class faculty and thought-leaders, our programme provides a uniquely “Imperial College view” of marketing, i.e., one where marketing fundamentals intersect with the latest thinking and tools in strategy, technology and innovation, and where marketing science is blended with managerial insights, ethical thinking and data-driven decision making. The programme equips students with the strategies, cutting edge thought leadership, and tools to develop solutions to real-world business challenges through online lectures, live sessions, workshops, practical activities, interaction with students around the world, and expert talks.

The programme comprises 10 compulsory modules¹ which are taught across three terms. You will also choose three electives from a range of topics offered across the Spring and Summer terms with a minimum of one elective in each term. The electives offered are delivered either online or face-to-face.

In the summer period, you can choose to undertake either a Strategic Marketing Consulting Project, a Case Study or a Work Placement, along with the Applied Strategic Marketing Report (ASMR). The ASMR is supported by workshops from the Library, the Global Skills team and the Contemporary Marketing Practice (CMP) lecture series. Alternatively, individuals wishing to move on to doctoral work may take a conventional MSc project (Individual Research Report) in lieu of the Strategic Marketing Consulting Project/Work Placement/Case Study and ASMR.

If you secure an extended Work Placement opportunity (4-6 months in duration) you will be able to transfer to the 16 month Programme Option in consultation with the Academic Director.

Before commencement of the programme, you are given access to on-line interactive primers in Maths, Data Analysis, Accounting, Study Skills and Marketing Fundamentals to prepare you for your compulsory module content. You will also take the Career Development Module throughout the year. These modules are non-assessed but you are strongly encouraged to complete them.

All MSc students in the Business School are required to complete the Plagiarism Awareness primer as part of their programme.

At Imperial, each ECTS credit taken equates to an expected total study time of 25 hours. Therefore, the expected total study time is 2250 hours per year.

Depending on the elective and core choice modules selected, you may spend approximately 20% of your total study hours on lectures, seminars and similar, and around 80% of your time on independent study.

Assessment Strategy

Assessment Methods

Modules will be assessed by one or more of the following types of assessment methods:

- Essays
- Continuous assessments
- Written Examinations/Tests
- Multiple Choice Tests
- Formal Presentations
- Reports
- Case Studies
- Class Participation

Assessed modules comprise coursework that is designed to help you master key elements of the subject and, in part, to help prepare you for the final assessment, which is typically a report or examination. Examinations are scheduled throughout the year, generally at the end of the term the module is taught or at the start of the subsequent term. Exact timings are detailed in the programme overview section above. The format of examinations may be written, computer-based or timed remote assessment.

Coursework weighting varies among modules. The various assessments allow you to demonstrate that you have met the intended learning outcomes for each module and these collectively contribute towards your achievement of the programme's learning outcomes, detailed above.

Assessments are designed to ensure that you have acquired the core knowledge and skills expected of a Business School graduate and that you are able to apply these in your career aspirations upon completion of the programme

Feedback can take many forms. You will receive written feedback on all coursework along with other forms of feedback such as verbal feedback on presentations

Academic Feedback Policy

Feedback can take many forms. During lectures and classes, you will receive verbal feedback on the ideas that you contribute to discussions and on in-class presentations. The online teaching materials contain exercises with built-in, immediate, feedback that is received when you submit an answer.

The School aims to provide feedback on coursework within two weeks. This will be sent in written form to the individual or the group, as appropriate. Academic staff may also provide verbal feedback of a general nature in class or posted to our virtual learning environment. Office hours offered on all modules also provide an opportunity for individual feedback.

The School aims to provide provisional examination grades 25 days from the end of the exam period. General feedback to the cohort is provided on examination performance, usually in written form. If you need to resit an examination, you may also approach the module leader for feedback on your performance in the first sitting.

You will be provided with a percentage grade for coursework and examinations with the final numerical mark only confirmed after the Board of Examiners Meeting and then released by Registry. Grades received during the year are deemed provisional until confirmed by the Final Board of Examiners.
